Welcome to these new Saint Cecilia families!

Lampe

Please welcome Jay and Lindsay Lampe, and their daughter, Haley (1 yr.), to St. Cecilia's! They currently live in Roland and moved here from Fort Madison, Iowa. Jay works in research for Swine Graphics Enterprises. Lindsay does catering for the ISU Memorial Union.

Wiebel

Welcome back to Iowa! Both Paula and Jerry are originally from Iowa. They moved to Ames this spring from Milwaukee after spending 25 years in Wisconsin. They moved here to launch Our Iowa Magazine, of which Jerry is the editor. In addition to working on the magazine, he enjoys gardening and "puttering" in his workshop. Paula does some freelance work for the magazine and enjoys reading, volunteering, and visiting their adult daughters in Virginia (Libby) and Arizona (Karen).

Cleveland

Annie and Jeff and their daughter, Claire (1 mo.) live in Huxley. Annie likes reading, cooking and baking, and is a teacher at Willson-Beardshear. Jeff works as an estimator for Story Construction and likes playing volleyball and softball, and woodworking.

Lara

Jonathan is a personal trainer with Anytime Fitness and enjoys staying active – working out, playing catch, and kickboxing. Sheena works for ISU-HR/EOD as a graphic designer. She likes competing with Jon, art, language, and being outdoors. They currently live on Quebec Street. Jon moved from Manilla, Philippines when he was 11 and Sheena moved from Corydon when she came to ISU in 2001.

Higgins

Maripat and Robert (Bob) have moved to Roland from Duluth, MN. They are familiar with St. Cecilia's as they have attended church here when visiting Bob's parents for 33 years. They have recently moved back to Bob's hometown. Maripat is an infant teacher at ISU Vet Med Childcare. She enjoys sewing and the Roland Historical Society. Bob works for Jacobson Staffing and enjoys golfing and gardening. They have four children, Bobby (31), Thomas (28), Dan (25), and Karen (22).

Chavez

The Chavez family has moved here from Minnesota. Jose and Maria have four children – Brenda (17), Luis A. Soliz (11), Juan A. Soliz (10), and Michael Soliz (6). Jose enjoys watching movies.

Anderson

Rose Ann has returned to Ames after a lengthy absence. She is a retired secretary at ISU. She enjoys bridge, quilting, music, rock hunting, and reading. Welcome back to Ames!

Top Ten Reasons for Not Leaving Mass Early

10. We owe God everything...God deserves our Best
9. We need it...and we are worth it.
8. The final prayers and blessings give us strength to live the Mass.
7. Liturgy is not a spectator sport. It requires full and active participation.
6. We celebrate as a community. One Body in Christ.
5. Communion is a holy time. A time to be in prayer, not preoccupied with other things.
4. After being invited to a banquet, where Jesus is the guest of honor, it would be rude and impolite to eat and run.
3. I want to be respectful to other parishioners and priests.
2. The recessional music is awesome praise.
1. Judas left early...and you know what happened to him.

Mass begins with the sign of the cross and ends with the final blessing. The Concluding Rites of the Mass remind us that we are all expected to do our part in carrying on the mission of Christ, a mission of proclaiming God's word and of serving others.

Hurlbut

Welcome to Marta Palosz-Hurlbut and Jason Hurlbut! They have moved here from Poland and live in University Village. Marta works for ISU and enjoys reading. Jason is an agent for New York Life Insurance Company and likes hunting, fishing, and being outdoors. They have a son, Olaf Jack Edward Christophersen.

Kolbet

Mason and Ashlie moved here from Northeast Iowa. They have a daughter, Alexis, who was born in May. Ashlie and Mason both enjoy hunting, fishing, and being outdoors. In addition, Ashlie likes horseback riding and Mason likes training horses. Mason works for Des Moines Area Community College and Ashlie for Midland BioProducts. Welcome to St. Cecilia's!

Welcome to All!
